

Co-operation profile details from Enterprise Europe East of England

20100113026 - UK management consultancy specialised in the footwear and textile industry is offering its services as a subcontractor or consultant to footwear manufacturers in Europe.

Commercial partnering opportunity

Description

UK company providing management and consultancy services for the footwear industry is looking for companies in Europe that need their expertise to reduce the cost of their processing. The company already works worldwide with clients, using lean manufacturing and incentive schemes to reduce costs. The company uses Work Study Techniques (including MTM systems) to set standards of productivity and by increasing it to save costs. The company is driven by a strong philosophy of serving their clients and using its experience of over 40 years in the sector as well as their skills to benefit their clients.

Target partner expertise sought:

Working together as a consultancy/ management combined team towards a common goal.

Country of origin: United Kingdom

Listed under: Business Cooperation Profiles \ Financial, Legal, Professional and other services

Key dates:

Profile created on: 13/01/2010

Last updated: 28/01/2010

Closing date: 13/01/2011

To find out more, contact Enterprise Europe East of England on 08457 1716 15 (select option 4) or email us at enterprise.europe@businesslinkeast.org.uk quoting ref 20100113026